RULES FOR USE OF THE MB COPP LOGO:

The logo art that we supply is for a specified one-time use only.

MB COPP will not issue direct exclusive logo usage rights to a business or permit logos on any clothing for public use.

The logo art is not to be circulated to any third parties for any reason without Provincial Board permission.

Neither the logo nor its colours nor its screen values or densities in colour or in black and white are to be modified in any way without written permission from the MB COPP. If colours or screens need to be changed for web purposes or silk-screening, for example, MB COPP must approve the revised specifications. Permission can be revoked at any time.
